Verdant Views

Carlos Mota's G: Forever Green is a scrapbook-like compilation dedicated to the universally loved color of—you guessed it—green. No subject too humble or shade too bright is off limits for this well-traveled style guru. A mixture of his own snapshots—glossy

Portuguese tiles and ivy-clad façades—mingle with infamous interiors, like this bedroom from the Tangier residence of Yves Saint Laurent and Pierre Bergé. Prepare for a jolt of serotonin with each turn of the page. casamota.com

Fantastical Delights

From the Bloomsbury Group to '80s pop and ancient mythology, British artist and designer Luke Edward Hall finds gleeful inspiration in all things colorful and whimsical. In Hall's second book, A Kind of Magic: The Kaleidoscopic World of Luke Edward Hall, his singular brand of wonder is on full display.
