

ALL

IN THE

Design & Luxury
September 22, 2019

T
THE
NEW YORK TIMES
STYLE
MAGAZINE

High-contrast design — from
New York to St. Moritz

MIX

T
H
I
N
G
S

Begone, hard lines — this season's furniture is soft, squat and deeply comforting.

Photographs by Patricia Heal
Styled by Theresa Rivera

BORN ROUND

From left: Fendi Casa Fanny armchair, $6,560, luxurylivinggroup.com; Isasper Morrison for Cappellini Orta settee, $5,000, cappellini.com; Moving Mountains Puffer chair, $6,925, goodcolony.com.

From left: Sacha Ladic for Roche Bobois Bubble chair, $4,095, roche-bobois.com. Harry-Paul for Dedon Babylon side table, $1,160, dedon.us. Michele Menescardi for Natuzzi Icon sofa, $9,740, natuzzi.us.

From left: Toshiyuki Kita for Moroso Saruyama Island settee, $3,850, morosousa.com. Orion Gian chair, $9,413, orionfurniture.com. Pierre Paulin for Ligne Roset Bonnie chair, from $3,560, ligne-rosset.com.

Clockwise from left: Mario Bellini for B&B Italia Le Bambole '07 armchair, from $4,595, bebitalia.com. Paola Navone for Baxter Nepal Mama armchair, $4,573, ddonyc.com. Giulio Cappellini Bong side table (top), $1,570, cappellini.com. Janus et Cie Bell side table (inverted), $599, janusetcie.com. Janus et Cie Bell side table.