

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

JULY 2024 £5.99

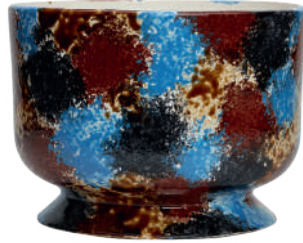

Container Yourself

An eyecatching planter will help lend a cultivated air to one's terrace, orangery or lawn. David Lipton digs out his favourite specimens

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

1 'Ane Planté', by François-Xavier Lalanne, Galerie Mitterrand. 2 'Jesture', by Martyn Thompson, £420, 1882.
3 Ceramic crock, by Tyler Hays, from £12,000, BDDW. 4 Large rustic stone-effect 'Classical Face' planter, £125, Rockett St George.
5 Bamboo wheelbarrow planter, by Vittorio Bonacina, $425, Amsterdam Modern. 6 Extra-large travertine 'Sairee', £4,195, Janus & Cie. 7 American fruit-tree box, from $2,100, Munder Skiles. 8 'Fearn', from $12,250, Orior. 9 Reclaimed 'Tamarind' cast-iron urn, £540, The Architectural Forum. All prices include VAT. For suppliers' details see Address Book ®